- Training/Development - identifying the training needs of each subordinate and developing training programs to meet those needs. Ensuring, through observation and recordation, that all subordinates are developing at an acceptable rate and level consistent with established guidelines;
- Discipline/Reward - gathering all information regarding incidents which may lead to discipline or reward; accurately documenting information and completing the report(s) in a timely manner; holding supervisors accountable for documenting both positive and negative comments regarding subordinates' activities; actively pursuing recognition for exceptional actions by employees; leading supervisors in developing programs for problem employees to alter inappropriate behavior through training, supervision or discipline;
- Conduct - ensuring that subordinates have a clear understanding of appropriate and expected conduct when dealing with the community, prisoners and co-workers by placing emphasis on: Cultural Awareness, Integrity and Ethics, Harassment and Discrimination issues, Departmental Core Values and Service Oriented Policing;
- Use of Force - reviewing, analyzing and documenting the use of force diligently and attentively. Critically evaluating the tactics leading to use of force and maximizing subordinates' ability to learn from experience. Maximizing subordinates' embracing of the core value "reverence for life" by supporting the value in discussions and training about force, both before and after its use;
- Evaluation - ensuring that the performance of subordinates, both positive and negative, is accurately documented and that evaluations are submitted in a timely manner. Rating their immediate subordinates in a timely and objective manner and developing and implementing strategies to enhance their professional performance;
- Health and Safety - supporting and encouraging Unit-level wellness programs and keeping a safe, secure and clean work place; and
- Personal Relations - treating every member of this Department, sworn and civilian, with the same dignity and respect that they would expect in return.

Delivery of Service

- Supporting and promoting the Department's Core Values and Service Oriented Policing philosophy, as well as community partnerships.

Efficient and Effective Operations

- Goals - by actions and statements actively striving toward accomplishing Departmental and Unit goals, while encouraging their subordinates to follow their example;
- Reports/Notifications - communicating with their supervisors and keeping them aware of problems, issues and activities concerning their areas of responsibility. They shall also ensure that all reports and notifications are accurate and timely; and
- Information - functioning as a primary agent of information exchange between top management and subordinate personnel.
