2-05/020.00 - Jurisdiction

This Division operates in the unincorporated areas of the County and within the geographical limits of those incorporated cities having contract law enforcement services with the County. On request, and after review, wherein the expertise of the specialized services of this Division are deemed necessary, said services are available to any police agency in the County.