3-01/010.05 - Delegation of Functions

Departmental functions which are similar or related in purpose, process method or clientele are, when possible, grouped together in one or more units under the control of a division chief or director.