3-01/010.15 - Organization for Command

Lines of control are established in conformity with the official organization of the Department to:

- permit delegation of authority;
- place responsibility;
- provide for supervision of operations; and
- provide for coordination of effort.