3-01/010.25 - Unity of Command

Each individual, unit, and situation is under the immediate control of one person. The principle of command responsibility is in effect (e.g., each executive and supervisor are responsible for the acts of his subordinates).