3-01/010.75 - Suggestions for the Good of the Department

A member desiring to make a suggestion for the good of the Department should submit a written statement of the suggestion addressed to the chief or director of his division, through channels.