3-01/100.35 - Dishonesty/False Information in Department Records

Members shall not create false official records. Members shall not knowingly or willingly enter, or cause to be entered, in any Department books, records, memoranda, reports, computer, or electronic data systems, any inaccurate, false, or improper police information or material matter. Department members who violate this section are subject to discipline up to and including discharge.