3-05/030.30 - Extradition Assignments

Travel in furtherance of extraditions of defendants is handled by the district attorney through the Major Crimes Bureau, Detective Division.

Employees assigned to extradition cases become state agents. All expenses in connection with extradition assignments are claimed through the district attorney's extradition office. At the time of assignment, the employee will be advised of all allowable expenses.

Upon completion of such a trip, the employee shall submit to the district attorney's extradition office a detailed expense account and all necessary receipts.
