3-06/190.10 - Classes of Publications

Printed: 7/5/2025 (WEB)

All Department publications will come under one of the following three categories:

- Class A Publications or reports designed for use within the Department. There may be some external distribution;
- Class B Publications or reports designed for a specific person, agency, commission, board etc.
 Material not intended for general distribution; or
- Class C Special publications and reports or proposals designed as an informational tool, public relations vehicle or specialized study for external dissemination. These special publications normally require a particularly unique cover to depict the content or dramatize the subject.
