3-07/140.00 - Department of Justice System (DOJ)

The California Law Enforcement Telecommunications System (CLETS) is maintained by the Department of Justice (DOJ) and provides administrative and broadcast message service to law enforcement and criminal justice agencies within the state. CLETS also provides law enforcement agencies the ability to send and receive messages throughout the 50 United States via the National Law Enforcement Telecommunications System (NLETS).