3-07/210.40 - Encryption

Authorized persons may use encryption features provided by Department-approved software. Authorized persons shall not use their network password for files saved using this feature. When authorized persons choose to use encryption for personal files, they must divulge the encryption passwords to their supervisor. Authorized persons may not install or use any encryption software not specifically authorized by the Data Systems Bureau.