3-09/110.35 - Protection of Reports

Unit commanders shall take reasonable steps to protect criminal records, including RAP sheets, printed electronic data, and computer access terminals, from unauthorized access. Units not operating around the clock shall maintain printed records in located cabinets and sufficient physical security to prevent unauthorized access to computer generated data.