3-09/170.10 - Responsibility of Participating Personnel

Responsibility for assignment of public appearances and their subsequent supervision rests with the concerned division chief or division director. The division chief or division director will implement adequate controls and supervisorial procedures to ensure that those persons representing this Department do so with the highest degree of professionalism.