4-02/010.25 - Assignment and Modification of Station Reporting Districts

Crime Analysis Program has functional supervision over modifications in existing patrol station/unit reporting district boundaries. All requests to change such boundaries shall be channeled through Crime Analysis Program in order to align the computer and statistical programs.

Reporting district boundaries shall be aligned with census tract boundaries whenever possible. In most instances, alignment can be attained by creation of new reporting districts or consolidation of existing ones.