Investment Fraud	SH-R-49 URN 11	Fraud & Cyber Crimes Bureau/Fraud Detail	The essence of this type of fraud is a promise of a very high return on the victim's investment. This often involves "real estate" fraud, but can include other types of schemes. An example of a real estate investment fraud is when limited partnership interests and/or mortgages on residential property are sold to investors. The real estate securing the investment is insufficient to support the shares or interests sold. Funds are removed from the investment properties through large management and/or general partnership fees paid to insiders. Investments are commingled. Numerous and complex banking transactions sometimes make it almost impossible to trace funds. Code 112 - Fraud by False Pretenses.
