5-02/100.55 - Transportation - Female Juveniles

Lady deputies should be utilized in transporting female juveniles in compliance with Department procedure with the exception that the unit commander or the station/unit detective commander may for good cause authorize other transportation during the course of an investigation.