5-03/000.00 - Prisoners

This chapter outlines the procedures to be followed by this Department between the time a person is arrested and released. During this period of detention or incarceration, the custodian of a prisoner shall be accountable and duty-bound for the safety and protection of that prisoner. Reasonable and ordinary care for the prisoner's life and health shall be constantly exercised.