5-04/010.40 - Evidence Specialists at the Scene

When a requested detective, criminalist, or other specialist arrives at the scene, the field deputy in charge of the preliminary investigation shall inform him of the existence and whereabouts of physical evidence and shall comply with his instructions as to its disposition.