5-06/040.75 - Responsibility and Inventory

Under the direction of the Advanced Training Bureau commander, the range master shall be responsible for maintaining the Department's supply of chemical agents.

Those units having a supply of chemical agents on hand shall be responsible for conducting a yearly inventory and providing the range master with a copy of that inventory by the last day of June of each year.