

5-07/290.05 - Unit Initiated Claim Process

The Unit Commander is encouraged to identify incidents in which the actions of an employee under his command have adversely impacted a member of the community. In such instances, the Unit Commander may assist the claimant personally to ensure quick payment and a just resolution of any claim. Such reimbursement can generally be made within three business days. The Unit Commander may initiate this claim process by:

- Making immediate notification to the Civil Litigation Unit during business hours;
 - Assisting the claimant in the completion of the County Claim form;
 - Obtaining verbal concurrence of the Division Chief or Division Director;
 - Preparing a written incident (claim) review which will include reference to the Division Chief's or Division Director 's verbal approval; and
 - Forwarding the claim and completed incident review to the Civil Litigation Unit.
