5-07/350.00 - Superior Court - Emergency Suspension of Sessions

When the presiding judge of the superior court issues a written order suspending sessions of any or all departments of the superior court, the executive officer of the superior court has been directed by the presiding judge to make a telephonic notification to the Sheriff. This notification shall be made through the chief of the Court Services Division.