5-09/110.10 - Formal Requests for Comment on Other Discretionary Permits

Environmental Impact Reports (EIR) are not required for all public projects. Occasionally a formal request for comment will provide governmental agencies and the public with an opportunity to review and comment on other proposals. Formal requests for comment shall be processed and logged in the same manner as an EIR.