5-09/265.50 - Maintenance of Department Canines

Each canine handler is responsible for the care and maintenance of the canines assigned to them. This will include, but is not limited to, feeding, hygiene, medical attention, exercise, training, and interaction, as necessary on a daily basis. This will also include the responsibility for ensuring that the canine is properly cared for and/or boarded whenever they cannot personally fulfil these duties.