5-09/270.25 - Consular Premises, Archives, Documents, Etc.

Consular premises, used exclusively for the work of the consular post, cannot be entered without explicit permission from the head of the consular post or his designee or by the head of the diplomatic mission. This permission may be assumed in the case of fire or other disaster requiring prompt protective action.

The consular archives and documents are inviolable at all times and wherever they may be. The official correspondence of the consular post, which means all correspondence relating to the consular post and its functions, is likewise inviolable.
