5-09/350.15 - Crime Prevention and Public Appearance

Upon the development and distribution of information on the "Self Protection for Women," station commanders shall select and train several of their female deputies to make requested public appearances relative to this subject matter.