

2-11/070.15 - Joint Regional Intelligence Center

The Joint Regional Intelligence Center (JRIC) is comprised of the following cooperating agencies:

- Federal Bureau of Investigation
- Department of Homeland Security
- State of California Department of Justice
- Office of Homeland Security
- Los Angeles County Sheriff's Department
- Los Angeles Police Department
- Long Beach Police Department
- Los Angeles Airport Police Department

Working together, the above agencies' collective responsibilities include:

- Develop and maintain a liaison and information sharing process, which includes law enforcement, public safety, and critical infrastructure sectors;
 - Serve as the intake center for tips and leads related to all crimes including terrorism;
 - Convert Information into operational and strategic intelligence;
 - Disseminate intelligence to prevent terrorist attacks and combat crime in the Central District of California; and
 - Act as Department liaison for INTERPOL.
-