Chapter 2 - Lockup Security

The Branch Supervisor shall be responsible for developing a Branch specific custody procedure plan for security operations. This plan shall take into consideration such variables as structure, location of the court lockup within the facility, the number and type of inmates, and the number and type of cases.