

1-05/090.00 Computer Games on County-Owned Computers

It is a violation of Department policy to install personally-owned computer games on County-owned computers. It is also a violation of policy to play computer games on County equipment during working hours. Such activity constitutes an inappropriate use of both County equipment and County time. Court Services Division Supervisors shall take appropriate measures to ensure that computer games are not played during business hours.
