

2-01/010.05 - Inmate Handling

Inmate control and movement is one of the most frequent and hazardous functions Deputies perform. Safely maintaining control of inmates is accomplished through awareness, consistent safety practices, and adherence to established policies and procedures.

The purpose of the lockup volume is to provide procedures on how to safely restrain, search and transport inmates.
