Chapter 13 - Mental Health Court

Department 95 is devoted solely to conservatorship cases, persons who are gravely disabled and unable to handle their own affairs, and who require a family member or some other person designated as a conservator. These cases are usually highly emotional affairs and require the utmost care and diligence of the bailiff.