3-03/010.00 - Deputy Conduct

A deputy’s conduct and demeanor in the presence of the public, other peace officers and court attaché represents the degree of professionalism and training of the entire Department. Proper professional conduct, appearance and performance of duties will reflect favorably upon the entire Department, as well as, upon the judiciary and the court system.