3-03/015.00 - Bailiff-Judge Relationship

Judges have individual preferences with respect to the procedures in their courtroom. It is imperative that the bailiff discusses with the judge the procedures to be followed upon the initial assignment and periodically thereafter. Regardless of how long a bailiff has served a particular judge, it is to their mutual advantage to review and discuss the bailiff's duties and performance in determining if any changes or additions are necessary.
