3-04/010.00 - Knowledge of Courts Calendar to Assist with Potential Security Issues

The bailiff shall be acquainted with the type of case being heard, be it a civil or criminal action. Familiarity with the case at hand as to type of crime and defendants charged, or the litigants involved, will enable the bailiff to anticipate any unusual situation that might arise, thus affording effective security regarding the defendant and protection for the court.