3-04/030.10 - Protected Witnesses

In some types of cases there may be witnesses that are under the protection of the Sheriff's Department, District Attorney's Office or the Federal Witness Protection Program. In these instances the investigating officer will usually inform the bailiff of the situation and request assistance. The bailiff shall refer the matter to the branch supervisor for coordination.