

3-12/025.00 - Responsibility to Bring Minor to Courtroom

The shelter care staff or Child Advocates (CASA) shall be responsible to bring the minor to court, stay with the minor through the proceeding, and escort the minor back to the shelter care facility. Should the minor be left unattended in the courtroom at any time, the bailiff shall immediately contact the shelter care operations manager or the program director.
