6-14/070.00 Library Services

Library service is not required of a Type I Facility. A limited law library is available to inmate workers. Individual procedures for use of these books may differ from station to station. Check with your watch commander for your unit's procedure.

A small library of books is located in each station. Books are available for inmate workers and pre-arraigned inmates upon request.

-See Station-specific rules-