6-14/120.00 Family Service Programs

Family Service programs are neither required of, nor practical for, a Type I Facility. Public information, including the phone numbers and addresses of community-based programs, is available at the station desk. These programs include information about:

- Individual, group, and family counseling
- Drug and alcohol abuse counseling
- Legal assistance resources
- Regional Center Services for the Developmentally Disabled
- Other community resources