6-16/060.00 Biohazard Trash Disposal

Biohazard storage/disposal bags should be used to store and transport any clothing, soiled gloves, towels, cleaning materials, etc. which have been contaminated by blood or other body fluids (e.g., urine, vomit, semen, feces). Each station jail shall contact their local waste management company and have biohazard trash bags disposed of at the nearest appropriate disposal site.