

7-01/050.10 Inmate Extraction Teams

Inmate extractions are tactical operations and should only be exercised when all peaceful solutions have been exhausted.

Inmate extraction teams shall be selected by each facility Captain. Facility Captains shall consider the following qualities when selecting extraction team members:

- Maturity;
- Physical ability;
- Communication skills;
- Work history.

Additionally, Custody Training and Standards Bureau staff shall evaluate personnel during formal extraction training and provide feedback to unit commanders for extraction team selection purposes, based on personnel performance.
