2-03/030.00 Hostages

A hostage is any person seized or kidnaped by another, where the perpetrator threatens the life of or threatens great bodily injury to the person held, with the intent to evade arrest, escape, obtain the release of persons in custody, obtain monies or property, or attain any other objectives.