2-06/050.15 Insufficient Food

It is the responsibility of each bus crew to make sure that there are enough lunches for all inmates transported to a court in the morning plus enough lunches for anticipated new bookings received at a court.

If lockup personnel find there are insufficient lunches, the CST Watch Deputy shall be notified immediately and a request for additional lunches shall be sent with the noon transportation bus.