5-01/090.05 - Owner in Custody of Sheriff

When the registered owner of a vehicle, which has been stored or impounded by this Department, is in custody of the Department, written authorization must be obtained from them indicating the name of any person other than themselves to whom the vehicle may be released by this Department.