7-03/080.00 Inmate Security

The safe and secure transportation of inmates is the primary function of Transportation Bureau and a major responsibility of all personnel assigned to this Unit. Every decision and action taken affecting inmates must be accomplished with this level of security as the primary determining factor.