2-06/030.15 - Investigative Responsibility

Station detectives are responsible for:

- Follow-up investigation of crimes occurring in the station area which are assigned to the station;
- Initial investigation of crimes occurring in the station area which require immediate attention and are assignable to the Detective Division;
- Authorizing the release of vehicles held by the station; and
- Investigating cases involving:
    - Child neglect;
    - Contributing to the delinquency of a minor;
    - Inadequate parental supervision;
    - Missing and found juveniles; and
    - Health and safety hazards.
- Investigating cases involving lost or stolen bicycles and processing found bicycles.