

6-07/130.00 Summons and Petition (Family Law)

- 6-07/130.10 In Re Marriage

In an action for dissolution of marriage, legal separation, or annulment of marriage, the summons shall additionally contain temporary restraining orders. Upon the filing of a petition for dissolution of marriage, legal separation, or annulment of marriage by the petitioner and issuance of the summons and upon personal service of the petition and summons on the respondent or upon waiver of personal service by the respondent, a temporary restraining order shall be in effect against both parties until the final decree is entered or the petition is dismissed, or until further order of the court.

The summons shall state on its face that the order is enforceable in any place in this state by any law enforcement agency that has received mailed notice of the order or has otherwise received a copy of the order and any officer who has been shown a copy of the order.

(FAM 232) (FAM 233) (FAM 2040)

- 6-07/130.20 Uniform Parentage Act

FAM 7700 In addition to the contents required by Section 412.20 of the Code of Civil Procedure, in a proceeding under this part the summons shall contain a temporary restraining order restraining all parties, without the prior written consent of the other party or an order of the court, from removing from the state any minor child for whom the proceeding seeks to establish a parent and child relationship.
