6-13/200.00 Creditorâ€™s Suit

The plaintiff in a writ of attachment case may file a creditor’s lawsuit against a third party in possession of the defendant’s property. The court may issue an order restraining the third party from transferring the property. If the plaintiff prevails in the lawsuit, the court may order the property delivered to the court or held by the levying officer. (CCP 491.310, 491.340, 491.360)
