6-17/130.00 Temporary Restraining Order

At or after the time the plaintiff files an application for a writ of possession, the plaintiff may apply for a temporary restraining order by setting forth in the application a statement of grounds justifying the issuance of such order. (CC 1861.16) Service fees and instructions are applicable.