6-17/210.00 Method of Seizure

The levying officer shall enter the premises described in the writ and seize the property generally described in the writ as identified by the plaintiff. The levying officer's entry is through the permission of the plaintiff, who, by definition, retains the right of access to, and control of, the dwelling unit.