

6-19/180.20 Application for Temporary Protective Order

At the time of applying for a right to attach order, the plaintiff may apply for a temporary protective order by filing an application for the order stating what relief is requested supported by an affidavit showing that the plaintiff would suffer great or irreparable injury if the temporary protective order were not issued. (CCP 486.010)
