

6-19/230.20 Delivering Property to Levying Officer

Unless otherwise provided by statute or the third person has good cause for failure or refusal to do so, the third person shall at the time of levy or promptly thereafter deliver to the levying officer any of the property levied upon that is in the possession or under the control of the third person at the time of levy unless the third person claims the right to possession of the property. A third person who is required to deliver property or make payments to the levying officer and who, without good cause, fails or refuses to do so, is liable to the plaintiff for the value of the defendant's interest in the property, or the amount of the payments required to be made up to the amount required to satisfy the levy.
